

Skill building Activities by Placement Cell

1. Session on Resume Writing

On 13 July 2024, Mr. Bhooshan Malkani (Marine People Manager- Asia) with A.P. Moller-Maersk was invited as a resource person for session on Resume Writing for our students where the speaker discussed various important elements in the resume like experience, projects, and skills- when highlighted appropriately, help in making a good first impression. The students got a good opportunity to discuss their queries and were greatly benefited by the speaker's vast experience in Human Resources.

2. Guest Lecture on 'Financial Statement Analysis'

On 20 July 2024 Mr. Zaheer Sayed (CFO-financial Planning Academy) delivered a guest session for SYMMS- Finance on 'Financial Statement Analysis' where students gained knowledge about application of different financial ratios in determining a company's financial health.

3. Mock Personal Interviews

On 27 July 2024 Our alumni were invited as Panelists for conducting mock personal interviews for the students of 2023-25 Batch. The students immensely benefited from the interviews, and the feedback shared by each panelist.

4. Session on 'Adaptability and Flexibility- The Two Key Skills Valued in Corporate'

On 19 October 2024 Mr. Akshay Muddapur, Sr. Executive from Deloitte India conducted a session on 'Adaptability and Flexibility- The Two Key Skills Valued in Corporate' where he shared his thoughts about the importance of flexibility and adaptability, especially for fresh management graduates. Whether it is working cohesively in a team, or managing different stakeholders' requirements, the speaker explained with examples the importance of these skills for the students who aim to make a successful career in corporate.

5. Mock Aptitude Test

On 16 November 2024 A Mock Aptitude Test was organized in four batches for all the students of FY and SYMMS to test their analytical reasoning, verbal ability, and quantitative aptitude, which are also some of the important skills required to successfully crack campus placement tests given by many companies.

6. Visit to the India Logistics and Warehousing Show 2024

On 23 November 2024 FYMMS Student Placement Coordinators and SYMMS Operations specialization students accompanied by the Training and Placement Officer, visited the India Logistics and Warehousing Show 2024 where the students got an opportunity to network with professionals from logistics and manufacturing industry.

