

Viksit Bharat@2047 Utsav in Campus and Watch the Inaugural Adress by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India

Objective:

- To understand the vision of a developed India.
- To recognize the role of youth and educational institutions in achieving this vision.

Benefits:

- Participants gain insights into the government's vision for a developed India by 2047, which emphasizes inclusive economic participation and aims to elevate India to the rank of the world's third-largest economy.
- The Utsav in Campus is likely to be a celebration of India's rich cultural heritage, offering participants a unique experience to witness and partake in cultural activities alongside the educational aspects of the event.

Description:

PTVAIM's COEI organised Viksit Bharat@2047 Utsav in Campus and Watch the Inaugural Adress by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India at PTVAIM on 11th December 2023 from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM. There were 22 participants attending the event.

Report on Activity name

PTVAIM's COEI organised Viksit Bharat@2047 Utsav in Campus and Watch the Inaugural Adress by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India at PTVAIM on 11th December 2023 from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM. There were 22 participants attending the event.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's speech at the launch of Viksit Bharat@2047: Voice of Youth, was a compelling call to action for India's youth. With a focus on innovation, technology, and skill development, Modi Ji emphasized their pivotal role in shaping India's future by 2047. He urged the youth to embrace entrepreneurship, highlighting its significance in fostering self-reliance and contributing to the nation's growth. The Prime Minister's address resonated deeply, stirring a sense of patriotism and commitment among the audience. By mobilizing youth participation, Modi Ji's speech marked a significant milestone in the journey towards realizing India's full potential. It underscored the importance of collective efforts in achieving the nation's aspirations. With his visionary outlook and unwavering determination, Modi Ji inspired hope and confidence in the hearts of millions, igniting a fervent desire to actively engage in the nation-building process and pave the way for a prosperous and developed India.

Following the session, all participants were allotted thirty minutes for brainstorming. Subsequently, individuals interested in exploring or discussing their business ideas were encouraged to connect with our incubation center.

Activity ended at 11:30 AM.

B. Chakrabarti
Director
PTVAIM's Institute of Management
Chitrakar Ketkar Marg,
Behind M. L. Dahanukar College,
Vile Parle (E), Mumbai-400 057.