Report on Demo Day - Government Document Preparation Camp

PTVAIM's Centre of Entrepreneurship & Innovation (COEI), with the support of Ms. Vishakha Kamble, an MBA-IEV Semester IV student, and in collaboration with Janadhar Foundation, organized a Government Document Preparation Camp from May 12 to May 14. The camp was held at PTVA's Institute of Management and provided services for creating and registering essential documents, including PAN cards, domicile certificates, employment cards, income certificates, marriage certificates, and NCL income certificates.

The camp saw a participation of around 50 individuals who were guided through practical demonstrations of document preparation. This event was also part of Vishakha Kamble's Semester IV examination project, giving her the opportunity to validate her business ideas while offering valuable services to the community. The successful execution of the camp highlighted the role of educational institutions in addressing community needs and providing real-world experience for students, fostering a deeper understanding of public service processes and entrepreneurial skills.
