Report on the Internal hackathon

On 3rd January 2023, PTVAIM's COEI in collaboration with an E-cell of M.L. Dahanukar College of Commerce organized an Internal hackathon from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm for First-year Junior college students. There were 105 students participated in the Hackathon.

The panellists included:

- Dr. Sucheta Pawar. She is an associate professor of general management and the dean of the COEI and PTVA's institute of management.
- Mrs. Shivani Naik – E cell member of Dahanukar college. IICC member
- Mr. Nithin Tikle. Vice president at Mahindra and Mahindra
- CMA Sarvottam Rege – E cell member of Dahanukar college. IICC member

The session started at 12:00. With Dr. Sucheta sharing some wise words of encouragement to motivate the contestants. The event experienced the most interesting ideas presented by the students followed by the judges asking questions about the business through a Q&A round before suggesting ways to improve their ideas and execution. All the teams including individual and team participants pitched their ideas in a designated sequential form.

After all the participants had concluded their presentations, the judges had a short discussion and shortlisted a few participants as the finalists. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to the judges and teachers. Encouraging words from CMA Sarvottam Rege were delivered to the participating students.
