

Visit to National Exhibition and Seminar Unsung Hero of India's Freedom Struggle

Objective:

- To highlight Jamsetji Tata's Vision for Indian Industrial Independence
- To create awareness about Jamsetji Tata's Contribution to Nation Building
- To inspire Youth through Jamsetji Tata's Ideals

Benefits:

- Participants understood an Educational Insight into Jamsetji Tata's Legacy.
- Participants came to know more about Fostering Entrepreneurial Mindset.
- The seminar served as a source of inspiration for young management students and youth attendees, empowering them with the knowledge of Jamsetji Tata's journey, vision, and innovations, motivating them to actively participate in nation-building and entrepreneurship.

Description:

On 7th August 2023 PTVA's Institute of Management organised a visit to National Exhibition and Seminar Unsung Hero of India's Freedom Struggle which was at University of Mumbai started from morning 9:30 AM to evening 6:30 PM. There were 20 MMS students from PTVA's Institute of Management attending the event.

Report on Visit to National Exhibition and Seminar Unsung Hero of India's Freedom Struggle

On 7th August 2023 PTVA's Institute of Management organised a visit to National Exhibition and Seminar Unsung Hero of India's Freedom Struggle which was at Sir Cowasjee Jehanghier Convocation Hall, University of Mumbai Fort, Mumbai started from morning 9:30 AM to evening 6:30 PM. There were 20 MMS students from PTVA's Institute of Management attending the event.

The event focused on the renowned industrialist and philanthropist Jamshedji Tata, his views on the Indian Swadeshi movement, industrial development, and its role in India's freedom struggle. The event commenced at 11:00 AM with the inaugural ceremony by the Governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais. Apex of this event was panel discussion by renowned personalities in the fields of academics and business management on Jamshetji Tata; The unsung hero of India's freedom struggle, his vision, his innovations and contribution in in India's freedom struggle and industrial development.

The panelists emphasized on the contribution of Jamshetji Tata through his ideas and vision to make India industrially independent and prosperous in their speeches. They also discussed the different institutes established by Jamshetji such as IIS (Indian Institute of Science), Tata endorsement fund to support Indian scholars, Textile industries, Taj hotels, Tata steel, Tata

Director
PTVA's Institute of Management
Chitrakar Ketkar Marg,
Behind M. L. Daharukar College,
Vile Parle (E), Mumbai-400 057.

power and many more. The panelists also enlightened us about Jamshetji's unconventional ideologies that brought transformation in the Indian mindset of business from trading to entrepreneurship. He realised that his era was industrial era and accordingly he started the institutions all over India that supported this cause.

In conclusion, the seminar was very much influential and inspirational for the youth and young management students. The panelists discussed various dimensions of Jamshetji's life and ideologies. They also shared some important and influential events in his life. The seminar ended with the student's interaction session with the panelists and ending speeches but the guest panelists. A video made by students of Sathaye college on Mumbai's heritage and its relation with Jamshetji Tata was shown.

Director
PTVA's Institute of Management
Chitrakar Ketkar Marg,
Behind M. L. Daharukar College,
Vile Parle (E), Mumbai-400 057.